Regensburg Overview

- One of our favorite towns, it is just fun to wander around Regensburg.
- This town started off as a Roman Outpost and parts of these structures are visible as part of the modern day buildings.
- The town has a strong historical past. The Old Town Hall once was the meeting place of the Parliament of the Holy Roman Empire.
- During the 2nd and 3rd Crusades, the stone bridge was the crossing site for Crusaders off to do battle in the Holy Land.
- The Christmas Markets at the Thun & Taxis Castle is our personal favorite in all Europe—very dramatic at night.
- Best of all, it has the World Famous Hat King Store—Anne owns several hats from here.
