Route Map from Uniworld

Overview

- Explore Europe's rich history and Jewish heritage on an incredible discovery of the Netherlands, Germany, France and Switzerland.
- Dive deep into the region's culture, natural wonders, traditions and historical significance in a one-of-a-kind experience along the Rhine. Delve into the region's world-renowned museums. Along the way, indulge in Central Europe's delicious cuisine.
- Oh, and did we mention the scenery? Standing on the top deck of your ship, watching the ever-changing landscape turn increasingly dramatic, you'll understand why people have been raving about the Rhine River Valley for centuries—and there's definitely no cause to stop.
- Jewish Heritage Program (select sailings): Our Jewish Heritage Program is the only one of its kind on the rivers and allows you to dive into Central Europe's enduring Jewish legacy with visits to museums, memorials, synagogues and more. Please note: some sites may be closed for inside viewing during the High Holidays, Passover and other significant events.

Day 1 Amsterdam (Embarkation):

- Arrive at Amsterdam Airport Schiphol.
- If your cruise package includes a group arrival transfer or if you have purchased a private arrival transfer, you will be greeted by a Uniworld representative and transferred to the ship.

Day 2 Amsterdam

- Enjoy the luxury of a full day in the “Venice of the North,” starting with a morning at the Fabrique des Lumières.
- Afterwards, explore the city on foot or via a canal cruise.
- This evening, a special Captain’s Welcome Reception and Dinner will be prepared for you.

Featured Excursion RESPECT IN THE RED LIGHT DISTRICT

- The Red Light District—or, as it is referred to locally, De Wallen—has been the center of Amsterdam’s sex work industry for several hundred years.
- It’s famous for the neon lights, partygoers, and “coffeeshops” that proliferate in the area, as well as the windows where some of the sex workers stand to attract clients.
- Today, you’ll visit the Prostitution Information Center to discover the important work they’re doing to educate visitors on the lives of sex workers for a respectful take on the popular Red Light District tour.
- Meet one of their experts, a current De Wallen sex worker, for a fascinating talk on the history of the district and her story.
- After, she will give you pointers on places to explore in the area (guided walking tours past the windows are not allowed here), followed by a Q&A back at the center.

A MORNING AT THE FABRIQUE DES LUMIÈRES

- Start your day with a visit to Westergasfabriek, a 19th-century gas factory that has long since been abandoned, reclaimed, and transformed into a thriving cultural space.
- Many festivals and galleries are hosted here, including the stunning Fabrique des Lumières.
- The “Factory of Lights,” as it translates, is an immersive digital art experience.
- A complex system of projectors covers every surface of the factory’s interior with larger-than-life displays of art.
- For 2024, the theme is Dutch Masters, so expect to stroll amongst the masterpieces of Rembrandt, Vermeer, Van Gogh, and more.

AMSTERDAM CANAL CRUISE

- It's called the "Venice of the North" for a reason: Canals crisscross the heart of the old city, and bridges link some 90 islands.
- As the principal city in a newly independent Holland, Amsterdam was a boom town in the early 17th century, rapidly outgrowing its medieval walls.
- The city's fathers responded by demolishing most of the old city and building an entirely new one, creating Europe's first planned city.
- That "new" district is now 400 years old, and as you glide along the main canals, you'll pass stately merchants' houses that were built centuries ago (some of them are now house museums you can visit on your own).
- But the canals are not merely scenic; they are essential thoroughfares—people take water buses to work and live in houseboats along the banks—so a canal cruise also gives you a look at the busy modern city.

VISIT TO THE PORTUGUESE SYNAGOGUE AND JEWISH MUSEUM

- Anyone who has read The Diary of Anne Frank knows what happened to Amsterdam's Jews under the Nazis.
- But not everyone knows that the Jewish community began in the city when Sephardic Jews fled Spain and Portugal after 1492, a group of successful merchants and professionals who in turn sponsored Ashkenazi migrants fleeing Central Europe in the 17th century.
- Visit the Jewish Historical Museum, with its meticulous re-creation of the Great Synagogue, compelling exhibit called "Friday Night" and lively children's area, and the nearby Portuguese Synagogue, before strolling through the former Jewish Quarter (Rembrandt lived in in this neighborhood, and he often asked his Jewish neighbors to pose for his Old Testament scenes; his house is now a museum and is one of the few original houses still standing in the area).
- Today's Jewish community is largely centered in Amstelveen, where some 15,000 Jews live, work and worship in one of the largest and most vibrant communities in Europe.

ANNE FRANK HOUSE VISIT $81 PER PERSON

- The story of Anne Frank is well known.
- She was born in Frankfurt 1929 to parents Otto and Edith Frank, who fled Germany with their family a few years later in the hopes of finding safety in the Netherlands.
- When Amsterdam failed to provide protection from the Nazis, the Franks planned to emigrate once again.
- This plan ultimately failed, and the Franks went into hiding in a secret household annex.
- It was in this annex that Anne Frank hid with her family for more than two years during World War II and wrote her diary.
- Seeing the annex for oneself is another story entirely.
- The Secret Annex had become a museum, giving context to Anne's plight and that of many families like hers in WWII.
- Today, you'll follow a local guide via public transportation to arrive at the museum and get a firsthand look at this poignant piece of history.

KEUKENHOF GARDENS $81 PER PERSON

- Rivers of blue hyacinths curve through the trees, and great drifts of brilliantly hued tulips and daffodils carpet Keukenhof's 70-plus acres (32 hectares).
- It's probably the most spectacular flower garden in the world, and it's only open for a few weeks each spring.
- Gardeners plant some seven million bulbs on these grounds, making it a showcase for the Netherlands' legendary flower industry.
- There's more to see than just flowers, of course: There are intriguing exhibits in pavilions scattered throughout the estate, as well as concerts and activities for kids.
- Note: If you're thinking about buying bulbs from Keukenhof or perhaps having items shipped home, make sure the vendor provides the documentation necessary for the import of bulbs or plants into your home country. Rules for importing flower bulbs and plants vary from country to country.

Day 3 Harlingen

- The only seaport left in Friesland, Harlingen is a bustling fishing center and the launch point for ferries to local islands.
- A quaint town, its canals are filled with sailboats and lined by traditional Dutch houses and historic buildings.
- Harlingen's beaches are an excellent place to relax and breathe in the salted air of the Wadden Sea.

Day 3 Featured Excursion Harlingen Village Day

- Harlingen is an attractive port town on the Wadden Sea—local legend has it that the only reason Harlingen isn't under the Wadden Sea is because of the actions of a young boy, who plugged up the local dike with one finger and thereby saved the city from sinking.
- It is, of course, just a fun story, but a statue in his honor can be found near the docks nonetheless.
- Today you'll stroll through Harlingen's canals and quaint alleyways with a local guide.
- Many of the buildings here have been around for three or four centuries, giving the town a historic feel.
- Keep an eye out for the gable stones on older buildings, small plaques with unique carvings used to help people find their way before numerical addresses were popularized.

Day 3 Harlingen Village Day

- You will have the opportunity to dive deep into the Frisian area with one of two different experiences:
- 1. Head to a horse farm where the characteristically large and agile black Friesian horse is raised.
- After learning about the farm's work and Frisian culture, you'll be treated to a horse show.
- 2. Take a short drive to the city of Franeker, where you'll find the oldest working planetarium in the world hanging from the ceiling of a beautiful canal house.
- This accurately moving model of the solar system was built between 1774 and 1781 by the Frisian wool comber, Eise Eisinga, and is recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.
- You will also visit a historic mill, still active today as a grain mill.

Day 4 Nijmegen

- Nijmegen is the oldest city in the Netherlands, having begun as an old Roman military camp over 2,000 years ago.
- Very close to the German border, its situation between the Meuse and Waal rivers renders its countryside particularly lush.
- In town, you'll find hints of its Roman roots and medieval castles.
- Notwithstanding its long history, Nijmegen is known for its upbeat and trendy atmosphere.

DAY 4 VISIT OF PALACE "HET LOO"

- Immerse yourself in the history of the Dutch Royal family today as you visit the palace known as “Het Loo.”
- Built at the behest of William of Orange in the 17th century, it was a summer residence for his family.
- Now, in the 21st century, the palace serves as a museum, so travelers and locals can marvel at the stunning decorations and gardens that were once reserved for Dutch royalty.
- The heritage of this building and the House of Orange-Nassau are excellently preserved, all of which you can learn about at your leisure as you admire the beautiful property.

DAY 4 LET'S GO: NIJMEGEN RIVERLAND BIKING

- This picture-perfect outing offers you the chance to pedal past everything from the oldest Dutch city and a tiny polder village to quaint tea gardens and the Bay of Bison.
- Apart from the many natural wonders you are sure to encounter, you'll enjoy a glimpse into the technological advances in water management of the Nijmegen area.
- Cycle along the beautiful terrain of the Dutch countryside, starting next to the Waal Bridge, where U.S. forces famously got stuck for nine months amid World War II.
- You'll bike past the Valkhof, a Roman fortress featuring ruins, a historic chapel, and a new art museum.
- As you ride along the hills of Ubbergen and Beek, you'll marvel at the many handsome homes and views of the polders below.
- Leave the Dutch "mountains" behind as you descend into the charming polders, with their verdant landscapes, farms, and some of the smallest towns and churches in the country.

Day 5 Cologne

- You have an array of choices for how you wish to experience Cologne's many treasures.
- Those interested in history and architecture will want to stroll through the Old Town, featuring 12 stunning Romanesque churches.
- Guests interested in the city's Jewish past are welcome to explore the centuries-old mikveh and Cologne's Jewish quarter.

DAY 5 COLOGNE WALKING TOUR WITH OLD TOWN VISIT

- Meander through the narrow, cobbled lanes of Old Town, lined with traditional houses in every color and a plethora of restaurants and pubs.
- Along the way, you will be treated to a traditional Krapfen, a jam-filled donut that is popular in the area.
- One of the city's 12 Romanesque churches provides a castle-like backdrop to this quaint, riverside quarter of Cologne.
- Your local expert will take you to the Domplatte, the square where you'll find the Cologne Cathedral.
- Should you wish, you can head inside this Gothic building on your own to see the Shrine of the Three Kings, which is believed to contain the relics of the Magi, and the beautiful stained-glass windows.
- Otherwise, try asking your guide for tips on what to explore. Whatever your interests, our local expert knows all the best spots in town!
- NOTE: On Sundays and Catholic holidays, tours inside the cathedral are not allowed, but individual visits are still welcomed.

Day 5 COLOGNE'S JEWISH HISTORY

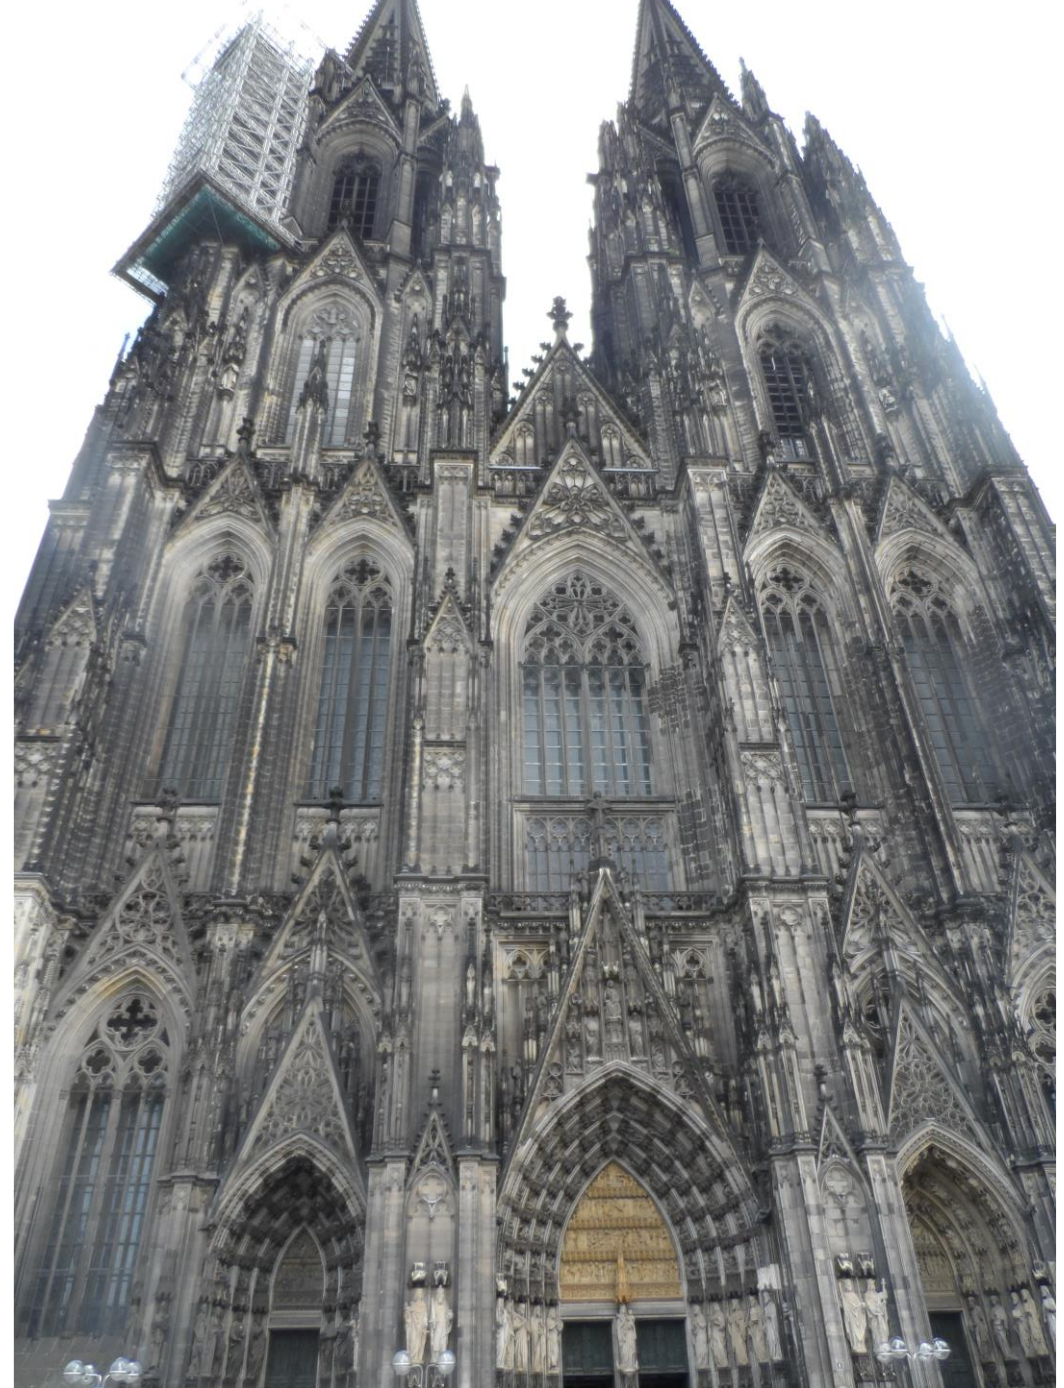

- The history of the Jewish people in Cologne is nearly as long as the history of Cologne itself.
- The first documented mention of the Jewish community is a 321 AD edict allowing Jews to become members of the curia, a class of public office in the Roman Empire.
- The community fluctuated over the centuries, and eventually came to number around 19,500 people before Nazism and World War II. In the years since, the Jewish community of Cologne has slowly re-established itself, now numbering about 4,500 members.
- Because of its history, today's synagogue calls itself "the oldest Jewish congregation north of the Alps."
- Meet our guides and head towards the site of the thriving medieval Jewish Quarter, where a museum dedicated to Jewish history is currently being constructed around the archeological site.
- Learn about some of the discoveries they've made from excavations here before moving on to the final portion of the tour, where you'll meet a member of Cologne's Jewish community at either a synagogue or at a memorial site known as Jawne.
- Formally the only Jewish grammar school in the Rhineland, Jawne is now a small, volunteer-run learning and center dedicated to the memory of a school head who saved many of his pupils from deportation and death.

DAY 6 OBERWESEL WITH RIESLING TASTING

- What would a cruise on the Rhine be without a stop at one of the picturesque and historic wine villages that dot its banks?
- Oberwesel has a long history, perhaps getting its start even before the Romans as a Celtic settlement.
- A walk through town will show you remnants of the town's medieval history, particularly the old town walls—paid for by the city's flourishing wine trade.
- Following your tour, you'll have a chance to taste Oberwesel's excellent Rieslings.

DAY 6 LET'S GO: RHEINFELS CASTLE & TUNNELS

- This excursion offers an active twist on the classic Rhineland castle tour, perfect for those looking for an invigorating hike and who are comfortable with some uneven terrain.
- Your guide will take you through the ruins of this 13th-century fortress, so extensively fortified that it withstood attacks from the nearly 30,000-strong French army force.
- For an extra dose of medieval mystique, we'll make sure to head into the tunnels underneath the castle during our visit.

- Today, you'll set off with your guide to visit the Rothschild Palais.
- In the 19th century, this palace was purchased and expanded by the Frankfurt branch of the Rothschild family.
- Having miraculously survived the destruction of World War II, the building looks much as it did two centuries ago.
- Several of its rooms are well maintained to showcase their opulence and history.
- The palace also houses a museum that dives deeper into Frankfurt's Jewish heritage.
- Please note that this tour will not operate when it lands on a Monday, as the Palais will be closed.

- Follow this path to the medieval church, where you'll discover the remnants of an 11th century Jewish community and its vaulted ritual baths.
- You'll also see the former mint and Holy Trinity Church on your tour.

DAY 8 PRIVATE DOKTORENHOF VINEGAR ESTATE VISIT AND TASTING

- For a different spin on the Palatinate wine region, visit the Weinessigut Doktorenhof estate for a special vinegar tasting.
- Yes, you read that right—a vinegar tasting. Founded by Georg Wiedemann some 30 years ago, Doktorenhof produces vinegars from premium wines, rather than inexpensive ones.
- Gewürztraminer, Sylvaner, Riesling and Pinot Noir are aged with a century-old vinegar “mother,” as the bacteria that makes vinegar is known, and flavored with a variety of herbs and fruits.
- Most importantly, Wiedemann and his family run their farm and vineyards with the utmost care, tending to them with natural materials only.
- The results make complex and elegant aperitifs, intended to be sipped from a specially designed long-stemmed glass between courses or after a meal.
- The atmospheric tasting room (think candles, cloaks and choir music) is like no other you’ll ever experience. You’ll have plenty of time to explore their enticing gift shop, too.

DAY 8 SPEYER AND THE SHUM

- Speyer, Worms, Mainz, all UNESCO sites dedicated to the Jewish people of the Rhineland, are collectively known as the ShUM.
- Why? It's a translation of the Hebrew acronym for all three cities: the Hebrew letter Shin (Sh) for Speyer, Waw (U) for Worms, and Mem (M) for Mainz.
- ShUM became the center of Jewish Ashkenazic Judaism in the middle ages.
- Visit markers of this legacy today on a walking tour through Speyer, including the medieval synagogue and mikveh.

AUTHENTIC COUNTRY COOKING WITH VINEGAR $211 PER PERSON

- Learn the secrets of creative but easy cooking when you join a chef in his 300-year-old village home-one with a very modern kitchen-near Doktorenhof.
- Schnitzel and sauerkraut may include vinegar in their ingredients, but the four courses you help prepare for lunch today take vinegar in a whole new direction.
- You might use orange blossom vinegar to season prawns or cherry vinegar in chocolate tartlets.
- This is a friendly, hands-on experience with a chef who welcomes novices as well as experienced cooks into his kitchen.
- The menu will be determined by what's fresh and local, and your chef instructor is a master at pairing regional wines with regional foods.
- Sauté, sip, sample-and enjoy!

DAY 8 ROMANTIC HEIDELBERG $105 PER PERSON

- A motorcoach carries you to Heidelberg, sometimes called the most romantic city in Germany.
- It is home to the nation's oldest university, a charming baroque Old Town lying along the banks of the Neckar River, and extraordinarily beautiful castle ruins overlooking the town.
- Your tour will take you to the castle, with its views of the red-tile roofs of the town below, the handsome Old Bridge and the wooded hillsides beyond, and then into Old Town, where you will see the late-Gothic Holy Spirit Church, the Student Prison and the longest pedestrian street in Germany.

- Controlled over the centuries by either France or Germany, Strasbourg—cross-cultural and bilingual—offers a delightful combination of old and new, as well as French and German characteristics.

- Following your Black Forest adventure, you will Reboard the Motorcoach and return to the ship.

Day 10 Basel

- Ramble with your guide through the historic heart of Basel. Every historic square you see will hold a special charm.

DAY 10 FEATURED EXCURSION: NIGHTS OUT: FELDSCHLÖSSCHEN BREWERY VISIT AND BEER TASTING

- Discover the tradition of Swiss brewing with a private experience at one of the oldest factories in Europe. Visit Feldschlösschen Brewery, a stunning Swiss landmark with 145 years of history.
- Appreciate the building's castle-like exteriors and original copper brewing barrels, sampling some of the country's most popular brews along the way.
- Please note: this excursion is available on the Amsterdam to Basel route of the itinerary only.

DAY 10 BASEL WALKING TOUR WITH LOCAL TREATS

- Basel is a moderately sized city with a population of just 170,000 and only a couple small skyscrapers to its name, but don't let its size fool you—Basel is a thriving trade hub with a markedly international feel.
- It's position at the borders of France and Germany makes it a popular place to work for commuters from three countries.
- Start your local discovery with a unique ferry trip across the Rhine to Kleinbasel. The ferry works by natural current only. Take a scenic walk along the Rhine promenade for the best views of the Patrician houses and historic facades on the opposite Grossbasel side.
- Once we pass Mittlere Brücke and stop briefly for Basler Lächerli (a gingerbread cookie), we board the ferry again to cross over to Grossbasel.
- We land at the famous Basel Münster and climb the stairs to the Münster terrace, where we'll find a wonderful panoramic view of the city and its bridges, squeezed between the Black Forest and Jura Mountains.
- Afterward, we'll weave our way through cobbled streets and narrow alleys to see a variety of beloved local spots. Along the way, you'll taste authentic regional treats.

- Discover Basel from an unexpected perspective today as you embark on a city tour led by a current or former member of the city's unhoused population.
- Your guide will share insights into their everyday lives as they show you places most tourists miss.
