Vancouver, British Columbia

- Every bit as cosmopolitan as Seattle, with a distinctive European European flair, Vancouver is the Canadian jewel nestled between the Pacific Ocean and the Coast Mountain Range.
- From the cobblestone streets of the Gastown district to Stanley Park, the one of the world's largest urban parks, it's no wonder Vancouver has been recognized as one of the world's most livable cities.

San Francisco

- From its seafood and sourdough breads to Alcatraz & the Golden Gate Bridge, San Francisco is the ideal city for visitors.
- Trolleys and prominent landmarks make getting around this eclectic metropolis easy.
- One of the best views in town can be had from the Coit Tower, one of the most prominent landmarks in the city and a fine example of Art Deco architecture.

San Diego

- In addition to being home to a world-class zoo and aquarium, San Diego is a laid-back navy town that is the closest U.S. city to Mexico.
- Great Mexican/American cuisine, Spanish-inspired architecture and what some consider the best weather in North America, make San Diego a destination unto itself.
