Ghent, Belgium Overview

- Ghent is another important medieval city, and it was the capital of Flanders and a wealthy trading center with numerous powerful guilds in its heyday.
- Much of it is pedestrian only in the old town and a joy to visit, especially the older buildings and impressive churches. It has some very interesting architecture buildings, especially in the old harbor area.
- The famous Jan van Eyck wooden altar pieces are on display behind a glass protective barrier.
- Our first visit was in 2012. We visited Ghent again in December 2018 and found it quite fun and a worthwhile stop.
